POLICE FOR THE PEOPLE, HE DECLARES; IS CHIEF, WON'T RESIGN, WON'T BE BOSSED.

In a Remarkable Interview Given to the Evening World Head of Police Department Says Politicians Must Stand Back.

Chief Devery's reasons for shaking up the police force are told below in his own words, given to The Evening World:

am still Chief of Police. I expect to remain Chief of Police. I believe in the people running the Police Department, not politicians. The transfers in the Police Department were made on my own judgment. York and the Brooklyn crowd have been throwing mud at me. York and Deputy Chief McLaughlin ran Brooklyn to suit themselves.

Mc aughlin did nothing but strut around with a plug hat on. I removed McClusky because he was too chesty. I'm not going to rasign; get that straight!

Tammany Hall, Platt or any politician had nothing to do with the shake-up. I question the power of the Board to remove me. Let them try it. I want able men like Titus in responsible positions.

York and McLaughlin are responsible for Coney Island. I dont't give a rap what Whalen (Corporation Counsel) says about my powers. Providence put me in my place and I am not going to resign.

Politics shan't interfere in the Department while I'm Chief of Police. York told me to keep my hands off Brooklyn and I got tired.
